

You are not a Victim

(Taking Responsibility)

KXXT1010AM - www.ItsYourDivineDestiny.com with Janet Mata

You are not a victim. Everything you are and everything that is going on around you is a result of your choices in life.

Your eternal destiny will also be a result of choices you make in life.

What will you choose? What will you do? Who will you blame for life's circumstances?

WHEN will YOU take responsibility for ALL of your actions and choices in life?

But I didn't know... Thanks' OK. But you still made choices that led you to these places. Whether they were thoughts, actions, or words; even if they were chosen; made in your generational line.

Many things happen in life due to judgments, offences, grumbling and complaining, food consumption choices, what you spend your money on, what movies you watch, what books you read, what friends you have. How much time you spend in prayer, and worship. These are all choices done on your behalf my child.

When will you accept responsibility? When will you take action? WHEN?

For responsibility is the key to action taking.

Whether you like your circumstances or not, whether you are happy with your surroundings or not - Take responsibility.

I mean OWN it. Own what's there. Own your results as though it was your first day on earth, and you found yourself where you are.

Own your choices my friend, and become wise. Wise in nature. Wise in future results. Decide what outcome you would rather have, and make new choices in order to get those results. (to get you there)

Life is a series of learning - doing and acting. mimicking what you have been taught, what you choose to do, and what was experienced.

Come to me, and ask me, "What would Jesus do? What do I want to do? What are my options? What result do I want?"

For I have given you the power to choose, and the power to create your own world.

Are you playing the victim card on everything that happens to you? - As though your mind can not make choices after the fact on what you want to do with this experience?

Do you want to help people?

Then help them to take responsibility for their actions. Help them to see they cannot play the victim card. You are in your circumstances for a reason.

Pray. Seek. Knock. - and the door to your destiny will be opened.

Do you want to be healthy? Have you asked me to help you eat healthy foods and asked me to show you the best way for you? If you are in Babylon, do you look to the wicked world for your advice?

Everything you do, is your choice. You do not have to do anything.

Life is a choice. Now make good choices from now on.

What you think and dwell upon is a choice. What you drink is a choice. Who you talk to is a choice. How courteous and forgiving you are, is a choice.

You choose. You choose.

Life is a series of choices. Will you ask me my opinion? Will you guess, or do nothing and blame everything around you?

Take responsibility.

I said in my word - subdue the earth and everything in it.

Submit yourself to God , Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

Be anxious for nothing but by prayer and supplication and thanksgiving let your request be known to God.

Call upon me and I will answer you.

You are not a victim.

You are not a victim.

You are not a victim.

You are not a victim of your circumstances. It's no one's fault.

They are merely the result of choices made. These choices move in a certain direction - which you can alter - or counter direct by your choices.

You may choose. Ask me to help you. Choose well.

"What if I don't know what to choose?" -Ask me and I shall reveal the answer.

Take responsibility.

"I can't" needs to be removed from your inner thoughts. Stop self-restricting yourself daughter, because my word says, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Do not focus on your fears.

Faith is the substance of things not seen; let Hope be your stronghold.

www.ItsYourDivineDestiny.com

How far must you reach to obtain a lofty goal I have given you?

How long will it take?

How much strength will you need?

What will it require?

Ask me my daughter, and I shall give you all of the above.

If you ask your earthly father for a fish will he give you a snake? How much more your heavenly father will give you what you ask. Ask; and you shall receive. Keep on asking, and believe.

It's time to take responsibility. And see the results, and take responsibility again, and see those results, and again, take responsibility.

It is a series of actions to get the results. If the results you see are not desirable, then make alternate choices until what you see is the desired outcome. This is a practical teaching, my child. Make use of it.

How to prioritize? Focus on one thing at a time. Meaning, whatever you are doing, focus, so your mind is not distracted.

Take responsibility for where you currently are. Make new choices, to get you to a new destination.

Ask me what to do, ask me for guidance. Ask me for wisdom. See change for the good. For the better, for the kingdom and for the Glory of God.

Please join me in today's prayer:

Today, I come before you Father God, and humble myself. I admit I have played the 'victim' card in my life. Forgive me. By doing this, I was blocking my own destiny, as a result of my choices. I forgive myself. I release myself from all debt and obligation in any area, that I would owe. I cancel all Satan's power over me in this area of my life because I am now forgiven. Jesus come into my heart, I receive you as my King, Lord, Savior and Healer. Holy Spirit come into my heart, and reveal your truth to me and how to move forward.

I purpose and choose to forgive all those who have offended or hurt me in any way. I release those people to you, my King, and release them from any obligation or debt they would owe me. They get to choose what they do. I purpose and choose to forgive. I now cancel all claims Satan may have over my life in this area because I have chosen to forgive. Holy Spirit, come and tell me your truth right now.

I now choose to take full responsibility for where I am at in life. I ask you father God, to reveal more and more my destiny and direction, and where I need to go from here. Thank you so much for today, I am choosing to rejoice, and to be glad in this day that you have made for me. Help me to make excellent choices, that would attract your blessings and honor.

Thank you that from now on, I am choosing to seek wisdom, and understanding, and dedicate all I do to you, and give you the glory ahead of time, for all that gets accomplished through me, in Jesus' Name.
